

Jim Dandy Market Opens New Self-Service Meat Department

Women of the community were offered a new and different kind of retail meat package beginning last Monday when the Jim Dandy Market at Crenshaw and Torrance Blvd. began a sale of pre-packaged fresh meats.

Manager M. L. "Shorty" Modeland said the new Jim Dandy pre-packaged meat selling system differs from the established method of meat merchandising in two ways:

1. Meats are cut and wrapped prior to the sale. A transparent film is used instead of the conventional butcher paper, so that the shopper may examine the meat before buying it.

2. Meats are displayed in open refrigerated cases. The shopper may wait on herself without consulting the butcher.

On duty behind the 65-foot display case holding more than a ton of meat will be four butchers and four young ladies who will be busy wrapping the cuts of meat for the open refrigerators.

Each package will show the weight of the meat and the price. The shopper not only can see what she is getting, but knows at once what the cost will be, Modeland says.

"The meat industry spent $8,000,000 developing this system," Modeland said yesterday. "It has been tried in many cities, and has been successful in 99 out of 100 locations tried."

Meats are received, cut, weighed, priced, and labeled at the local Jim Dandy Market, Modeland emphasized. The butchers on duty at the market will be able to supply the shopper exactly the cut she desires if she can't find it in the display case.

The new display cases will be an addition to the long display cases at the installed in the store to display luncheon meats, oyster fish, and cheese items.

Girl Aids Widow Who Lost Wallet

"You don't take money for doing what's right," an 11-year-old girl said as she refused a reward for returning a wallet to a widow with six children.

Had not Mrs. Arline Rickabaugh, of 3940 W. 171st St., been able to get her wallet back, she would have been headed for rugged financial difficulties. It contained $17 in cash and her paycheck.

The girl, Karen Dolan, 11, of 403 E. 181st St., told a theater manager she found it under a front row seat. The theater manager called Mrs. Rickabaugh to inform her that her wallet had been found and gave her the address of the little girl. Mrs. Rickabaugh, whose husband died a victim of polio in 1951, went to the girl's home to thank her and to give her a cash reward.

Karen accepted the thanks but turned down the reward.

God as Source Of Life Sunday Lesson-Sermon

That increased activity and vigor result from an understanding of God as Life will be stressed in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Life" in all Christian Science churches.

The Golden Text is from John (5:26): "As the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself."

A Bible citation from The Acts (9:36-40) tells that Dorcas, who "was full of good works . . . was sick, and died." And the disciples sent unto Peter "desiring him that he would not delay to come to them . . . When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber; . . . But Peter . . . kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, 'Tabitha, arise.' And she opened her eyes; and when she saw Peter, she sat up."

Mary Baker Eddy declares in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Whatever is governed by God, is never for an instant deprived of the light and might of intelligence and Life." "With its divine proof, Science reversed the evidence of material sense." (p. 215).
